

Songbirds Head West

Acknowledgement to BEN BRENNAN

It is possibly the biggest tour in Australian country music history.

The Songbirds tour has not only been running since February but it also involves three of the biggest names in Australian Country Music at the moment.

Gina Jeffreys, Beccy Cole and Sara Storer will soon share the stage in both Orange and Bathurst when their marathon tour brings them through the Central West.

It has taken about ten years for the three of them to get together but according to Gina it was almost inevitable. "Beccy and I have been talking about touring together for years," she said.

"We were each others bridesmaids ... this year at Tamworth we decided to do a tour and we've been getting sell out shows everywhere. There have been huge reactions ... We are thrilled."

"The three of us have spent our careers as lead singers but all of us have our moments to shine.

There's no support act because we didn't want to cut down our time on stage.

All three of us come out straight away ... we sing each others harmonies ... and we finish the show together."

"There will be tears at the last show, I think," Gina said.

The Songbirds tour will pass through Orange Ex-Services Club on Thursday, November 15 and the Bathurst Memorial Entertainment Centre on Friday November 16.

Best Wishes to Ann Clark

Get well soon Ann.

We heard through the grapevine that you have recently undergone surgery. We wish you well and hope to hear your bonny Scottish voice again soon.

Best wishes Anne from Gawler Country Music Club

Note: Since Ann came out of hospital she has indicated that anyone wishing to discuss issues of breast cancer is welcome to contact her.

See you at our next show Ann.

Q: Did you hear about the female opera singer who had quite a range at the lower end of the scale.

A: She was known as the deep C diva.

Just a Thought For Bill Northcott!

Bill says 'Thanks' to all those who visited, and sent him cards, and messages while he was in hospital.

An eighty year old man was sitting on the couch with his wife when she said to him, "Why don't you come and sit close to me like you used to." So he did. After a moment she said, "Why don't you put your arm around me like you used to." He put his arm around her and held her tight. Then she said, "Why don't you nibble on my ear like you used to." The man got up and left the room. "Where are you going?" she called out. "To get my teeth," he replied.

Great to have you back on board Bill!
