

That Woz the Day That Woz!

19th October 2008

Tiffney and GoldRush played a wide selection of popular Country songs. Tiffney's voice is as good as it always has been and she was ably backed by five musicians including harmonica player.

As things heated up the dancefloor became busy and the strength of the harmonies was displayed when they sang 'Will the Circle be Unbroken'.

With Slim's songs Lights on the Hill and Duncan the golden oldies proved ever popular and Tiffney's own song Til We Meet Again attracted considerable attention.

A lively version of Your Cheating Heart had the dancers out in full force.

Thanks to Walk Up Artists Roger, Dave Pearce, Eliza and Peter Tomlinson for contributing to a great show.

Country music's "Hottest Men"

Are in a new Charity Calendar.

Golden Guitar winners James Blundell, Adam Brand and Lee Kernaghan are three country star names who have thrown their support behind the new "Men of Country 2009 Charity Calendar" which has just gone on sale.

Calendar organiser, Karen Waters from Red Rebel Music, says: "the aim of the calendar is to not only help raise much needed money but also to raise awareness of various brain tumour organisations within Australia.

"These include Brain Tumour Australia (BTA), Sydney Neuro Oncology Group (SNOG) and the Cure For Life Foundation, Karen said, "three fantastic organisations that are vital links in the care, research and support for brain tumour patients, their families and friends."

The full colour 2009 Calendar features 12 of today's "hottest male acts" – in alphabetical order – Rob Black, James Blundell, Adam Brand, Paul Costa, Lee Forster, Adam James, Jonah's Road, Troy Kemp, Lee Kernaghan, Drew McAlister, Stephen Rowe and Matt Scullion.

"Without hesitation, these wonderful guys supported the calendar from the very beginning," Karen said. "There have also been so many other wonderful people and businesses who have helped make the calendar a reality.

Without them, we couldn't have done it, so thank you everyone!"
