Newsletter of the Gawler Country Music Club Inc November 2011 No: 222

It sure has been a while since the family group The Sherrahs scored 'One Hundred and Eighty!' in the 180th edition of our Gawler Country Music Club's Newsletter.

This time 'Two Two Two' is their magic number!

Our top scoring music act is all set to appear at Gawler Country Music Club with The Sherrah's Family Christmas Spectacular on Sunday 18th December. They're sure to delight our audience with superb music, and guaranteed... 'small' surprises'.

If you like Country Music you'll love the Sherrahs, and you must take this opportunity to enjoy a Christmas Cracker of a show!

What better way to get into the festive spirit than listening to a mix of country, folk, and gospel music.

The Sherrah's popular self-penned songs will no doubt touch the hearts of many listeners.

Sister and brother Michelle and Anthony, (from Baimsdale, Victoria,) and sister and brother Tracy and Steven (from Papakura, New Zealand,) met by chance in 1988 at the Tamworth Country Music Festival. This was when Tracy and Steven moved to Australia from New Zealand and Michelle was competing as a finalist in Star Maker.

From that moment on, friendships were formed, leading to marriages and the birth of the music group 'The Sherrahs'. (Yes... and some other... 'small surprises'.)

Their great vocals, harmonies and musicianship always please their audiences.

In the run-up to Christmas Day, do come along and enjoy this wonderful day of music, cheer and companionship with a family band, and with the good people of Gawler Country Music Club.

Our Committee has agreed that the Special $2.00 low cost Christmas entrance fee will be donated to a local CHARITY OF CHOICE..... with Gawler Country Music Club adding a substantial donation from their existing club funds.

This special event is all set to be a remarkable festive experience, so come along and enjoy the Christmas spirit!
 Please arrive early to ensure you obtain a seat.

If you would like to purchase a Sherrah's CD, have a word with Tracy at the event.

See you there! Ho Ho Ho!
