Ma's Country Kitchen

Club Member Anne is here with her and her husband Kerry's favourite recipe
Thai Seafood Curry.

This is so easy to make and very tasty. If not a fish eater then you can use chicken.

22 Minutes to Prepare and Cook

Ingredients

1 Tablespoon Olive Oil
1 Onion, Diced
1 Cup Snow Peas sliced. I use Baby Green Beans
1 Red Capsicum, Sliced
600g Fish or Seafood Pieces (Fish Prawns Squid etc)
1 x 45g Packet McCormick Thai Seafood Curry Mix
1 x 375ml Carnation Light Coconut Flavoured Milk
1/2 Cup Water

Directions

Heat oil in large pan and fry onion and capsicum for 3-4 minutes.

Add the fish or seafood to pan and stir-fry for 2 minutes then add packet contents, coconut milk and water

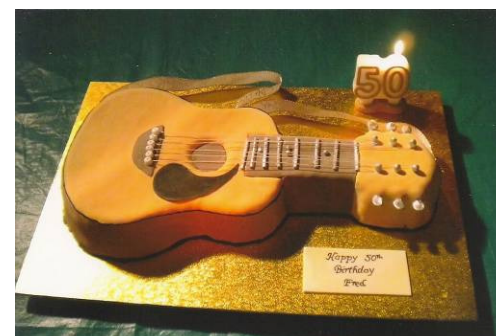

Cook while stirring for 3-4 minutes then remove from heat and serve.

I serve it with rice or you can have noodles.
(Sorry Anne. We don't have a pic.)

Carlene's Cake for Old Fred!

Well it happens to us all. The years tick by and before you know it; up pops another Birthday Cake. However not all birthday cakes are as flash as Carlene Oliver's guitar design.

A yum party time! Poor old Fred!
He didn't know whether to play it or eat it!

Kristal is Back!

Kristal Collins is now living locally with her partner.
We could be seeing a lot more of the Little Sparrow.

Local Artist on Exhibition

Eileen and Max show off the Slim Dusty painting of Artist Robert (Spider) Mc Mahon who has supported Country Music for many years. Robert paints and draws portraits for friends and followers of Country Music. Described as a 'Loveable Larrikin' Robert is loved and appreciated for his artistic works.

Birthday Boy!

Recently turned 88 year of age, Vince pictured here can be seen up on the dance floor regularly at Gawler CMC.

It goes to show that
Dancing is for Everyone!
