Norma O'Hara Murphy

It's been some time since Norma dropped out of performing at sell out Country Music venues to concentrate on her song writing.

Parting company with her mischievous Irish band The Leprechauns, she decided to 'Prepare for the Quieter Life' and hang up her shillelagh; replacing it with pen.

Norma penned the songs Paddy William and An Old Cattle Dog recorded by Slim Dusty?

Norma O'Hara Murphy is now about to launch her new album

WHISKY GULLY ROAD.

Don't miss Norma's visit to South Australia when she appears at our Gawler Country Music Club, Munno Para on Sunday April 15th 2011.

Norma O'Hara Murphy has earned a reputation as one of Australia's best Country Music entertainers. She is known for her wonderfully distinctive voice and for her prolific song writing ability.

As a girl from the bush who has never left country life... Norma has produced songs such as "The Old School Bus", "Murray River Blues", and the timeless "Darlin' Billy".

She has nine albums to her name so far; and is the proud recipient of five Golden Guitars. Her diversity of work includes beautiful love songs such as the haunting, "Sarah's Memory" and "I'd Say I Love You"... and the contrasting Aussie classics "Sydney Or The Bush" and "Roses Cafe".

Norma is a passionate lover of all things Australian; the bush; horses; campdrafting, (See page 5.) footy; our wonderful rivers, and of course all those amazing characters who are as uniquely Australian as Norma herself.

Her albums feature some of Australia's very finest musicians, such as Tommy Emmanuel, Larry Mahoborac, Garry Steel, Stewy French, Mike Keiren.

Norma's reputation over the last twenty years as a successful Country Music artist is complemented with overseas tours and International performances... but still...this Aussie Lady remains true to her beloved Aussie bush, its people and its lifestyle.

Norma is very excited about going back on the road to bring her new songs to her dedicated Country Music fans.

The release of her tenth album is a much anticipated event for all of Norma's devoted fans. And in Norma's own words "I am hoping to convert a whole new bunch of fans with this new album. I am confident it is my best album yet!"

Don't miss your opportunity to catch up with Norma O'Hara Murphy live on stage at Gawler Country Music Club on Sunday April 15th when she appears with your local SA band Kindred Spirit.
