Ma's Country Kitchen

Sticky Chicken with Green Curry Noodles

Serves 4

2 tblsp Peanut Oil
 ¼ cup Raw Cashews
 4 Chickens Maryland
 1 tblsp Thia Green Curry Paste
 1 cup Chicken Stock
 165ml Coconut Milk
 1 tsp Sesame Oil
 200g Snow Peas, thinly sliced lengthways
 Juice of one lime, plus extra wedges to serve
 100g Rice Vermicelli Noodles
 1 Long Green Chilli, seeded and sliced
 ¼ cup chopped Coriander
 2tblsp Honey

Heat oil in a large frying pan on high heat. Cook cashews for 1-2 mins, stirring until golden. Remove cashews and drain on paper towel, chop roughly.

Cut chicken Maryland in half to separate thigh and broomstick. Add to same pan, skin side down. Cook for 5 mins each side, until golden. Reduce heat to low and cook, covered for 15-20 mins, turning once until cooked through.

Meanwhile, heat curry paste in a pan on medium for 1 min, until fragrant. Add stock and bring to boil. Add coconut milk and sesame oil. Reduce heat to low and simmer for 5mins, until thickened slightly. Add snow peas and cook 1-2 mins, until just tender. Add lime juice and season to taste.

Place noodles in a large bowl, cover with warm water and soak according to packet instructions.

Drain and return to bowl with chilli and 2 tblsp of coriander, Add coconut mixture and toss to combine. Drizzle honey over chicken and turn to coat, cook for 2-3 mins, until chicken is sticky.

Divide chicken between serving plates and top with cashews and remaining coriander.

Serve with noodles and lime wedges.

His performances and music caught on quickly with his country fans, and it wasn't long before John knew he wanted to move to Nashville and compete with the world's best country artists.

Since arriving in Nashville John Damian has fine-tuned his songwriting talents, become an outstanding guitarist, and learned the art of recording in the studio.

He met Nashville singer/songwriter and Reptile Records recording artist Susan Marshall and the two have forged a songwriting team, creating many of the songs featured on John's first album. John has now been signed to Reptile Records and has just put finishing touches on the recording of his first album with independent record producer Scott Tutt at the board. The album contains songs written by John and Susan.

John has been on the road touring with Keith Urban, learning the ropes to prepare him for his own touring.

With the release of this self-titled album in the US, Europe and Australia, John will be visiting radio stations and touring extensively throughout the US and hopes to also return to his home Australia to perform at some of the major country music festivals.

Do you have any suggestions on how South Australia can keep our Country Music Artists performing in Australia?
