

Leoni's Memories

I remember the cheese of my childhood, and the bread that we cut with a knife, when the children helped with the housework, and the men went to work not the wife.

The cheese never needed an ice chest, and the bread was so crusty and hot, the children were seldom unhappy and the wife was content with her lot.

I remember the milk from the billy, with the yummy cream on the top, our dinner came hot from the oven, and not from the fridge in the shop.

The kids were a lot more contented, they didn't need money for kicks, just a game with our mates in the paddock, and sometimes the Saturday flicks.

I remember the shop on the corner, where a pen'orth of lollies was sold do you think I'm a bit too nostalgic, or is it....I'm just getting old?

I remember when the loo was the dunny, and the pan man came in the night, it wasn't the least bit funny going out the back with no light.

The interesting items we perused, from the newspapers cut into squares, and hung on a peg in the outhouse, it took little to keep us amused.

The clothes were boiled in the copper, with plenty of rich foamy suds but the ironing seemed never ending as Mum pressed everyone's duds

I remember the slap on my backside, and the taste of soap if I swore anorexia and diets weren't heard of and we hadn't much choice what we wore.

Do you think that bruised our ego? or our initiative was destroyed we ate what was put on the table and I think life was better enjoyed.

Mother's Little Helper

I am mother's little helper I can sweep the sitting room I can make it neat and tidy With my duster and my broom I can wash the cups and saucers
And set the table too
And there are many other things That I have learnt to do I love to help dear mother And hear her gently say "I'm glad my little daughter Can work as well as play".
