Ma's Country Kitchen

Chocolate Cake

If you like Country you like Chocolate!

2 cups Self-raising Flour
4 tablespoons Cocoa
½ cup Sugar
2 tablespoons Golden Syrup
1 teaspoon Bicarbonate of soda
1 ½ cups hot Water
4 ½ tablespoons Butter, softened
1 teaspoon Vanilla Essence

Frosting

3 tablespoon Chocolate Squares
3 tablespoons Margarine or Butter
1 ½ cups Icing Sugar Mixture
2 tablespoon s Cocoa
3 tablespoons Milk
1 teaspoon Vanilla Essence

Turn on oven to 160c and grease two 20cm sandwich tins.

Sift flour and cocoa in a bowl, and then add sugar.

In a small bowl combine golden syrup and hot water, stir in bicarbonate soda and stir until dissolved. Add butter and vanilla essence stir until butter melts. Pour into mixing bowl and mix everything together.

Pour mixture into two sandwich tins, dividing mixture as evenly as possible between the tins. Bake for 20 minutes, cool for 5 minutes, then turn upside down on a wire rack.

Frosting

Heat chocolate squares and butter in a saucepan, stirring, sift in cocoa and icing sugar. Add milk and vanilla essence. Beat icing until thick and forms peaks. Spread over cake.

Now guess what you do next.....

New Venue for Country Music

John Williamson will officially mark his 40th year in the industry through two scheduled performances at the Sydney Opera House accompanied by the Sydney Symphony and special guests.

The live performances, on Friday October 29 and Saturday October 30, will be delivered before what is expected to be capacity audiences and will see John performing his biggest hits with new sounds and stories portrayed through the inclusion of the 32 piece orchestra.

John Williamson has symbolised the spirit of Australia in poetry and song for the past four decades.

An Australian icon, John has 24 Golden Guitars, three ARIA Awards, plus MO Awards, APRA Awards, Platinum and Gold albums and more than four million album sales.

It was on June 4, 1970, that John made his name when his much loved "silly song" Old Man Emu was released after he won the "New Faces" television talent quest show.

Since then, he has become the man famous for such stirring classics as Cootamundra Wattle, Raining On The Rock, Galleries Of Pink Galahs, A Bushman Can't Survive, Rip Rip Woodchip and True Blue.

John's catalogue of more than 350 songs would make any songwriter envious....
