FESTIVAL UPDATE.

Well, our Festival is now only three months away, and is shaping up to be really special.

This year we will have two bands playing in the street on the holiday Monday, 4th October, along with buskers and a sausage sizzle, and side shows etc.

The Saturday night Concert & Awards Presentation will feature :- Reg Lindsay, Chad Morgan, Deniese Morrison, Becky Cole, Kahren, Jimmy Little, Lionel Rose and Carole Sturtzle, all backed by the Howie Bros. band, and compered by Johnny Mac.

Reserved seats are going on sale at the Gawler Tourist Office from 1st August.

At $12.00 each, this is a real bargain. You get to see 9 Country Music Stars all in the one show.

We are still planning the show for the Racecourse on Sunday 10th October, which we hope, will include a big Truck show.

This year we are going to award 8 prizes of $50.00 each, to the best eight buskers.

Don't forget!! Get your concert tickets early!! First in get the Best seats!!

DEAR MEMBERS & FRIENDS,

Our June show, featuring "DAKOTA" band, was absolutely great. The terrific friendly atmosphere was shared by all the many people that attended. It was great to see such a crowd. We certainly appreciated the company of our good friends from Murray Bridge Country Music Club, who travelled down by bus to see our show. We also had visitors from the Adelaide Country Music Club. It really is great to see this friendliness between clubs.

ANN RIVERS, from America, was our Guest Artist, great voice, great personality, and the crowd just loved her. Our walkup artists were Colin Thomas, Jodie Thomas, Annette Ramsay and Rebecca Thomas.

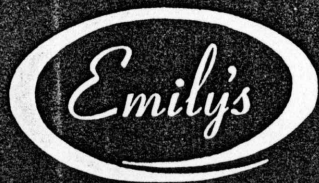

Incidentally, I believe that little Jodie Thomas "stole the show" at the Riverland Festival Awards. She won FIRST PRIZE in the 10 & under section, and THIRD PRIZE in the Gospel under 13's.

"CONGRATULATIONS JODIE".

First Prize in the raffle, a very large Meat Tray, was won by ALLISON ROGERS, second prize, an Australiana Key Holder, donated by J. McKerron, was won by JODIE THOMAS, and third prize, a Maiden Hair Fern was won by DENNIS KLUGE.

Members Door Prize, was won by Dorothy Fischer, and second prize was won by Monica Williams

The Monte Carlo dance was won by PAT DOWELL and JACK BAILEY from the Murray bridge Club who took home the box of chocolates and the bottle of wine. They didn't draw the Ace to win the Jackpot, so this now goes up to $50.00

OUR NEXT SHOW on Sunday, 4th July, (American Independence Day) will have an American Theme. The band will be "TEXAS BASH", and Guest Artists will be "DALLAS & TRAVIS LIST". Join in the fun and wear the red, white and blue, or stars & stripes. A PRIZE FOR THE BEST DRESSED.

We were thankful to receive a few suggestions in the box at the last show. These were mostly congratulatory, and were very much appreciated by the Committee. One suggestion was for a Flying Fox from the dance floor to the toilet. While we can see the benefit this may be for some, unfortunately it is beyond our means at the moment.

TAMWORTH BUS TRIP is definitely on. We already have 22 names on the list, and only need another 23 to fill the coach. This is the chance of a lifetime: A 10 day coach trip to Tamworth, with overnight stop each way at West Wylong Motel (includes dinner & bed & breakfast), plus 6 nights hotel accommodation (includes bed & cooked b/fast). All this for just $400.00 per person. I suggest you get in early, as these seats will go very quickly. We need $100.00 deposit to secure each seat, and the balance to be paid in full by 1st December, 1993. I've already booked my seat, so come join me.

Don't miss our next show, come and bring a friend.

Dear Members,

How many of you were fortunate enough to attend this years Barmera Country Music Festival 1993. I was booked up to go, and then I had to have a back operation, and had to miss being there.

But the good thing about it, was that the A.B.C. put it on the air on the Saturday night, and as I lay in my bed, I was able to listen to the three hours of non-stop good Country Music.

What a show it was, some of the artists were:- Lindsay Butler, Brian Letton, Ricky & Tammy, Kahren, Ranjit, Howie Bros, Reg Lindsay, Olive Bice, Bill Langhorne and lots more.

Half way through the show the A.B.C. were giving away five C.D's of Lee Kernaghan's "Boys from the Bush", to the first five callers outside the Riverland. I won one, the only one from Gawler, it made my night.

I hope that one day our Gawler Country Music Festival will be as big as the Riverland.

Joe McKerron.
Publicity Officer.
