GAWLER

DEAR MEMBERS & FRIENDS,

Well, our great Festival '93 is now behind us, and has left us with many, many delightful memories, and lots and lots of ideas for next year.

Saturday nights concert was a spectacular success, and even though it went way over time, I never heard one complaint. The only sour note, was that several cars were broken into in the car park, while the concert was in progress. Our condolences to those concerned, and action is being taken by way of Crime Prevention Action meetings at the Tourist Office.

Despite the extremely cold weather, we had a great attendance at the Racecourse on Sunday. The highlight of the day, was the arrival of the Truck Convoy carrying the "CanTeen" kids. The truck motto of "Truckies Carry This Country" is indeed true. We asked the truckies to help us out and true to form, they did, and paid $10 for the pleasure, all of which goes to "CanTeen".

We predict that the "TRUCK SHOW" will be much larger at next years Festival, as this is the only Truck Show held in South Australia, and we will start our planning much earlier.

The Talent Quest proved once again that South Australia certainly has its share of upcoming stars. Very popular were tiny Jodie and Benjamin Thomas.
