Dear Members & Friends,

Judging by the crowd reaction, our June show was the best yet. 'Graeme Hugo & Ironbark' certainly made it a great day. They are definitely one of the top bands in South Australia today.

Our artists for the day were BEV VERRAN, DENNIS VERRAN & LINDA MILLER-BOOTH. We all really appreciate these artists who give of their talent freely for our enjoyment.

RAFFLE PRIZES. First ticket out was for LYN & TERRY BRENNAN, who chose the Mystery Prize, which was a Country Music Belt Buckle. Second went to MRS. INCE who chose the autographed "Graeme Hugo" cassette. Third went to JULIE NICOLAI, who chose the Gourmet Basket. Once again, the Ace was not drawn from the pack of cards to win the jackpot.

MONTE CARLO was won by GAY HARE & FAY RESCHKE, who received the Chocolates and Port, but unfortunately, they also missed out on the jackpot.

MEMBERS DOOR PRIZE of a barrel of 21 pieces of Chicken, donated by KFC of Gawler, was won by MARG. FISCHER.

Both Jackpots still remain at $50.00 each.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY this month goes to -

KIETH ROBINSON, L.J. PRIDER, DON DAVIS,
DOREEN YOUNGMAN & HELEN HAINES.

CORINNA CORDWELL

6. Barmera Festival is over once again, and as always, from all reports, it was another great week.

Our own Festival is shaping up very well. This year we have decided to keep the Saturday night Concert tickets down to $12.00 per seat, with the added benefit of a Family Ticket (2 adults & 2 children) for $30.00. This will be a saving of $18.00 for most families. Sunday's entry at the Racecourse will also remain at $5.00. As a lot of people told us last year, this is great value for your money.

Some of the bands booked for the Festival include "MILLER COUNTRY BAND", "WILD CARD", and "DETOUR".

These bands on their own guarantee great listening, and we will also be having Line Dancing demonstrations, stalls etc., as well as well known artists.

If your sitting around with nothing to do one night, might I suggest a video that is available for hire locally. George Strait in "PURE COUNTRY", filmed in 1992, and said to be his own story. It has some great music on it and a good story line as well.

If anyone knows of any others that I might have missed, please let me know.

Looking forward to July's show with Patsy Biscoe, don't be fooled into thinking she is just a childrens entertainer, she and her band to great country music.

Quote for the month:-

'Husband's are like a fire,
They tend to die out when unattended".

GAWLER SQUARE & LINE DANCERS

Gawler & Line Dancers enjoyed the afternoon at Gawler Country Music Club on June 19th. Trevor & friends were on the dance floor strutting their stuff (line dancing), most of the afternoon, to the great sound of Ironbark Country Band. Thanks to the Committee for allowing Trevor to be introduced to the Country Music fans and entertainers present.

We hope that the Gawler Country Music Club continues to grow and thrive, we will be doing our best to encourage our Square & line dancers to join and attend the monthly entertainment provided by G.C.M.C.

Trevor can be reached by phone - 085 254191.

Boot Scooter.

ADELAIDE COUNTRY LINE DANCERS

This is a totally Line Dance Club. We have had lots of fun lately learning "The Dirty Cowboy" and "The Ski Bumpus". The Dirty Cowboy always creates lots of laughter. Although this Lines Club has been going for some time, we have not really considered a club badge, but the Line Dancers have now been asked to submit idea's for a badge.

If you have nothing to do between 2pm & 4pm on the 2nd & 4th Sundays of each month, why not consider joining us to learn line dancing.

Trevor will walk you through the steps and before you know it, you'll be dancing to the best music - "Country Music" of course.

Phone - 085 254191.

Boot Scooter.
