Dear Members & Friends,

Great fun at our April show, just about everybody had a go at the Country Line Dancing, which is becoming very popular. Thank goodness for the large dance floor.

HIGH COTTON is a great country band, and DENNIS VERRAN entertained in his usual "laid back Jim Reeves" style, and his lovely wife Bev entertained with a couple of songs as well.

RAFFLE. First prize went to IVY MASSEY, who chose the Mystery Prize, a Bottle of Perfume donated by Jacob's Fashions.

Second prize went to R.H. NITSCHKE, who chose the Mothers Day Basket.

Third prize was won by S. Le CORNU, who chose the Black Forest Cake, and Fourth Prize, the chance to win the Jackpot, went to DOREEN YOUNGMAN.

The MONTE CARLO was won by ANN MOAR and LISA LINES, who got the Chocolates and Wine, but did not win the Jackpot.

These Jackpots still remain at $50.00 each.

The MEMBERS DOOR PRIZE of a Barrell of Chicken donated by KFC Gawler, was won by Glenys Foster.

This months show will have an Adelaide Cup Day theme. Maybe you could bring your horse or a jockey????

The Waylon & Willie concert was a bit of a mixed bag judging by the reports I received from several people, but on the whole most of them were thrilled to be there and were well satisfied.

Happy Birthday's this month to JAN PRIDER and VALMA CRISPIN.

Quote for the month:-

"There are people who think they can't, so they don't. Others believe they can, and they do."

JONI LEE.
Secretary.
