Sadly we have lost another long time member.

Jeanette Mold passed away on the 3rd of February. Jeanette and her late husband, Graeme, joined the Gawler Country Music Club way back in 1997. Both were excellent dancer's and were always on the dance floor. Graeme passed away suddenly around 2007. Jeanette stayed away from the club for a while but came back when she could. Jeanette was a fighter, she would not give up. Jeanette was a Nan to 16 Grand children and Great Nan to 14. She shared her love to all who knew her. Rest in peace Jeanette. Now reunited with Graeme. We will miss your wonderful smile.

President's Report March and April

G'Day Members & Friends,

Well we are back! Although we missed 2 months, we were able to have our March show. Although our numbers were down, our March show was another great day with Palomino Deluxe. What a great band. Our guest artists, The Austins, were the icing on the cake. They added the final touch to a great day's entertainment. Thanks guys, we all enjoyed the day. Our April show day falls on Easter Sunday. We have decided to host a new band, Swamp River, to perform for us. I have had some good feed back from people who have seen them play.

Our April show went off very well with all the Covid restrictions lifted, which made a lot of people happy. With good numbers through the door, we were happy. Swamp River band were great. With a few adjustments to the sound, we were off and running. Their drummer pulled out a week before the show for personal reasons and they only had two practices with their new drummer, but they played great music all day. They kept the dance floor very busy. Well done guys we enjoyed the afternoon.

Moving onto our May show we will have Tru-Country with Megan Lawrie as our guest artist. This will be another great day. So until then, Keep it Country. Regards to all.

Keith Warren President / Entertainment Officer

The Playford Country Music Club committee members hope you all had a safe and happy Easter.

Jubilee Bun Recipe

I grew up with Jubilee Bun made by my mother and was thrilled to see a modern take on the recipe. It mentions air fryers and thermomixers. It reminded me that my mother was working with the bare minimum of labour saving devices when she was bringing us up.

The only real difference in my mother's version, is that she added a tablespoon of sugar to the recipe.

It was also interesting to read the paragraph of the history of the Jubilee Bun/Loaf. I always thought it was something to do with the Queen.

Enjoy!!!

VORWERK JUBILEE LOAF (SERVED SPREAD WITH BUTTER) TM

 Total: 1min
Preparation: 1min

 8 slice(s)

ACCESSORIES YOU NEED:
Spatula
Measuring cup

Ingredients
Jubilee loaf (served spread with butter)
235 grams of self raising flour
20 grams of butter
200 grams of Milk
135 grams of mixed fruit or a 1/2-cup of raisins, 1/2 sultanas egg
icing sugar and a splash of milk

Preparation
Line a loaf tin with baking paper to fit your air fryer or to cook in the oven
Preheat oven to 160 deg fan forced
Add butter and flour to the bowl, blend 5 seconds, speed 6
Add the egg and milk and blend 4 seconds, speed 6
Add the fruit and blend 4 seconds, reverse speed 4
The batter will be thick -- scrape into your loaf pan level the top with your spatula

In the air fryer it will take approx 25-30 mins 160 deg - oven 160deg fan forced approx 30-35mins
A skewer to the middle should come out clean

Icing - place a few tablespoons of icing sugar into a small bowl and a splash of milk - mix with a spoon and drizzle over the loaf when cool

Served spread with butter

The jubilee cake or loaf was created in 1936 for south australia's 100th jubilee year and the recipe* was published in the 1936 edition of the 'Green and gold cook book
