January & February President's Report.

G'Day Members and Friends,

Well here we are almost 2 months gone already. Our January show went off well with Crosstown Connection, although numbers were slightly down, it was still a good day. Plenty of dancing and people enjoying the day. Well done guys.

Our February show was with Midnight Special. A good crowd through the door. A pretty good day. Warren Johncock never just sits when the band takes a break. Warren does Trivia Questions, which I suppose keeps every one thinking.

We have a lot of good bands to come, I have booked the rest of the year's entertainment. I have had to juggle things around a little as the City Cowboys have now stopped. Peter Symonds has had to step away from doing so much, he has some serious heart problems which will need surgery to fix.

For our March show, we will have Eddie & Friends with Murray Mac as our guest artist.

Until then, keep it country.

Keith Warren

President/Entertainment Officer

QUICK QUICHE

This recipe is super easy and is a great way to use up eggs. It is also called Impossible quiche. This is something I make in advance and take it to work for my lunches. It's great hot or cold. The secret to this recipe is the pre-cooked onions. I like to cook my onions first. Sometimes when you put raw onion into things it can stay raw. Plus it gives the quiche a completely different flavour.

- 3 small onions
- 1 Tablespoon margarine
- 5 bacon rashers
- 6 eggs
- 2 cups milk
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 cup grated tasty cheese
- 1 cup SR Flour
- 1 teaspoon mustard

Peel and dice the onion and fry off in the margarine until transparent. While the onions are cooking prepare the bacon. Cut off the fat and dice. You can really add anything so today I'm adding 1 cup mushrooms diced. Add the eggs to a large bowl and whisk. Add milk, salt and pepper and the mustard and mix together. Now add the SR Flour and whisk until lumps have reduced. Add all the other ingredients and mix together. Pour into an oiled quiche pan or oven dish. Cooking for around 40 minutes or until golden and set in 180°C preheated oven. Serve immediately or allow to cool for the next day.

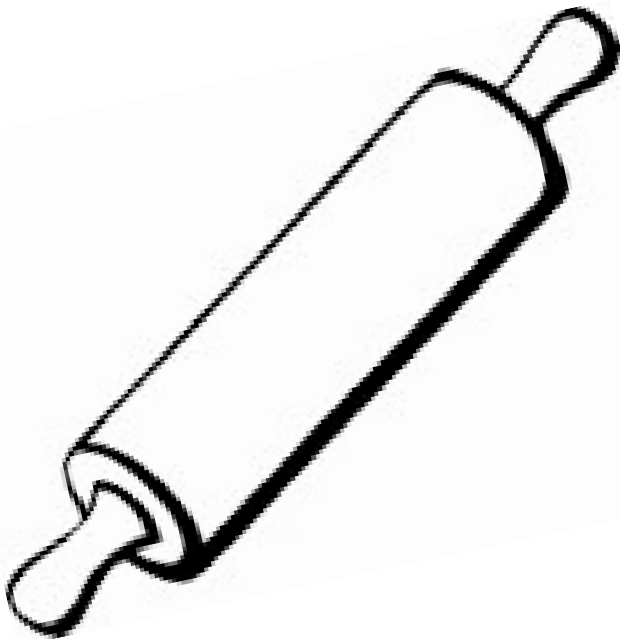

LEMONADE SCONES

I never thought of would give in and actually try this recipe because I love the old school recipe but here I am sharing this one with you. I think the taste is the same or at least very similar but I did find they are slightly fluffier and they did rise more too. They are "easier" to mix and this recipe makes approx 10 to 12 depending on how big you make them.

- 3 cups S.R. Flour
- 1 cup cream, plus 300ml extra for topping
- 1 cup lemonade
- 1 Tablespoon icing sugar
- Jam of your choice to serve

Preheat oven to 180°C fan forced oven. Grease an oven tray approximately 23cm square. Sift the flour into a bowl and make a well in the centre. Add the cream and lemonade to the flour and mix the ingredients together. Don't over mix it. Tip onto a floured surface and continue to combine. Flatten dough until roughly 3cm thick. Use a scone cutter or cookie cutter to cut out the scones and place side by side in prepared tray. Bake 15 to 20 minutes or until golden brown and sound hollow when tapped. Allow to cool. Use an electric mixer and beat the cream and icing sugar until it thickens. Serve scones with jam and cream. *Handle the dough as little as possible. Scones are best made and eaten on the same day.

Feed Back Needed

I have had a suggestion put to me that we need a “no alcohol” beer at the bar. Please let me know what you think. We could possibly have a light beer and a no alcohol beer and do away with the heavy beer. (I don't drink it so it doesn't bother me.)

Please let me know one way or the other.
