July & August President's Report

G'Day members and friends,

I am sorry we could not hold the July Open Mic as the people who set up the sound and run it were not available for the day.

What a fantastic day we had for our July show. The Juke Box Boys were excellent. With a very big crowd wanting a lot of fun and they certainly got that. The dance floor was full all day. The boys never fail to put on a great show. Well done guys, a great day.

The Graeme Hugo bus trip to Sunnyvale is filling slowly. We need more people to come on board. It is a full day's bus trip over and back, with morning tea on arrival, a show with Graeme Hugo and a two course lunch for $80 all up. Please come along as it's a great fun day.

Well moving onto our August show. We had a new band, One Night Stand. What a great day with a good mix of music, plenty of dancing, everyone having a great time. Well done guys we enjoyed the day.

Keep it Country.

Regards,

Keith Warren

President / Entertainment Officer

AGM Results

Thank you to those people who made the effort to come along to the AGM prior to our club show. Things have changed a little with 3 new committee members. I have retained the President's job, Helen Warren is still the Secretary, Bruce Goodridge is still the treasurer, Ian Fisk still the Webmaster and Photographer, Chris Scotland is still the Newsletter Editor, and the General committee has retained Karol Goodridge, and Fred Hugo but now has three new members - Bob Huggins, Kevin Perry and Bernie James.

We had 3 nominations put forward for Life Membership and the committee selected Fred Hugo. Well done Fred.

The winner of this years Roger Howard Award was Ian Fisk. Congratulations Ian.

On a sad note we have been advised that Briant Hipkiss passed away in early July.

Briant was a long time member. Our thoughts go out to Elizabeth and her family.

David Williams passed away on the 25th of July. David was the nephew of the late R M Williams. David ran the Alcheringa Shindigs for about 5 years from his home at Wellington with the profits mainly going to the Royal Flying Doctor Service. David was a great friend to many. He travelled the country to get great artists to appear at his shindigs.

Helen and I first met David at the Gawler Country Music Club's first Slim Dusty Tribute Show that we put on in 2004, the first anniversary of Slim's passing. We went on to be very good friends. David will be remembered by a lot of people both here and interstate. David has spent the last few years in a nursing home at Meningie. He passed away peacefully. Rest in peace old mate. Our thoughts go out to his family and friends.

Keith Warren.

Queen of Australian Country Music

Joy McKean 14th January 1940 to 25th May 2023

Later career

McKean received her sixth Golden Guitar award in 2007 with "Peppimenarti Cradle" winning the Award for Bush Ballad of the Year.^[14] McKean celebrated her 80th birthday in 2010 with the Happy Birthday Joy concert at Capitol Theatre in Tamworth during the Country Music Festival in January 2010.^[15]

McKean was one of the founders of the Tamworth Country Music Festival and the Country Music Association of Australia, and was also a biographer (Slim Dusty: Another Day, Another Town).^[10] She was chair of the Slim Dusty Foundation Ltd, the organisation established to build and operate the Slim Dusty Centre in his home town of Kempsey, NSW. The centre opened in October 2015.^[16]

Documentary film

The 2020 Australian documentary film Slim and I, directed by Kriv Stenders was released when McKean was aged 90, and told the story of her life with Slim Dusty.^[17] The film features covers of McKean songs by acclaimed contemporary artists including Missy Higgins, Paul Kelly, Troy Cassar-Daley and Keith Urban.^[18]

FIONA'S TUCKERBOX

July Show! As you may be aware I rely heavily on my little family to help me in the kitchen on club show days. I try not to ask too much of my boys as they are grown up now and have their own lives to manage but they always jump in when they can, even Anthony's girlfriend Victoria has slid in nicely to our chaotic little family. I love that we work together so well (Most of the time)

The July show was hectic to say the least. The husband was hit with man flu and as we try to keep everyone healthy, he stayed home. Anthony and Victoria were both working and couldn't be there so it was up to Michael and myself to carry the team to cater for you all. Michael would normally roll in casually at 11.30am to help with service but he was there bright and early with me from the beginning helping me prepare all the food and stayed right to the end to wash all the dishes and clean up.

It was extremely busy and I can assure you that when we got home that afternoon I thoroughly enjoyed a much deserved glass of scotch

I would really like to thank Bernie for jumping in and being absolutely wonderful (as she is every month) I would also like to thank those who offered help if we needed it. (Noelene and Beth). My Dad (Keith) even popped into the kitchen a few times to lend a hand on the fryer and clearing plates. What an All Rounder President we have.

It was wonderful to see all the plates being returned to the kitchen when they were finished with. I know that doesn't seem a big thing but it is truly helpful to return your plates and cutlery when finished. This saves us a lot of time having to go and collect them all. So thank you for assisting us with that task. I really appreciate it.

All your feedback is wonderful too. Thank you for being so kind. I have noticed the cake sales have slowed dramatically so I think I will be reducing the amounts I am providing. If you have suggestions of what kind of cake you'd like to see please let me know.

I have included my recipe for the Rock cakes that were available too.

The band was fantastic (Juke box boys) and had the dance floor busy all day. It was so good to see people up dancing and having a great time. I even managed to squeeze in a dance with my Mum (Helen) at the end of the day. It was a lot of fun.

See you at the next show.

Fiona

TRADITIONAL ROCK CAKES

There is nothing about my cooking that is "Traditional" 😂😂 I literally change things as I go. But I have tried to write this one out as "traditional" as possible.

I remember my Mum making these when I was a kid but she'd leave out the sultanas in a few just for me because I wouldn't eat "the flies" 😂

Today I did half with sultanas and half with dried fruit and nuts. Makes approximately 24 small cakes

2 Cups S R. Flour

Pinch of salt

¼ Teaspoon mixed spice

¼ Teaspoon cinnamon

¼ Cup sugar

½ Cup margarine or butter

½ Tea spoon vanilla essence

1 Egg

½ Cup milk

1 Cup sultanas

(I have used mixed dried fruit and nuts) some people use currants instead of sultanas.

Preheat oven to 170°C

Mix all the dry ingredients together in a bowl. Rub the margarine into the dry ingredients with your fingers until it resembles bread crumbs. (Pictured below).

Add egg and milk and combine well. Now Add the fruit (what ever you have chosen)

Place heaped spoon fulls on to greased baking paper lined trays.

The next step is optional. I sprinkle caster sugar on top of each mound.

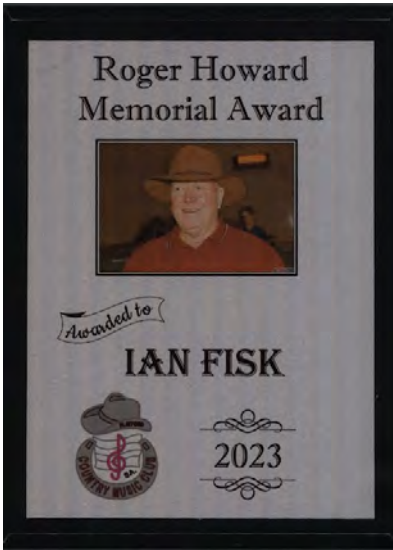

Place in the oven and cook for 12-15 minutes or until slightly browned on edges.

Allow to cool before removing from tray. Eat them warm, or cool completely and eat cold.
