Exercise for people over 60

Begin by standing on a comfortable surface, where you have plenty of room at each side.

With a 5-lb potato bag in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold them there as long as you can.

Try to reach a full minute, and then relax. Each day you'll find that you can hold this position for just a bit longer.

After a couple of weeks, move up to a 10lb bag.

Then try a 50lb potato bag. And eventually try to get to where you can lift a 100lb potato bag in each hand and hold your arms straight for more than a full minute. (I'm at this level)

After you feel confident at that level, put a potato in each bag..

President's Report. November & December

Our November show was another great day. Eddie & Friends never let us down.

The good numbers through the door made it even better. The music that the band plays is always good dance music and the dance floor was busy all day.

Mick Micallef was our guest artist and worked in well with Eddie & Friends. A great afternoon of music.

Moving onto our December show With Workin' Overtime. Always a good mix of music. Some Country , Some Country Rock and lots of Christmas Carols. Well done guys.

As you know , we run 2 meat trays each month which we purchase from Munno Para Foodland. After I sent good feedback about the previous meat trays, they sent a voucher which we used to pay for the December meat trays.

I want to thank our Committee for their efforts for 2023 Thanks guys & girls.

Well January is fast approaching. Our band will be One Night Stand. Looking forward to the New Year.

Keep It Country

Regards To All

Keith Warren President

FIONA'S TUCKERBOX

I hope you've all had a wonderful Christmas with family and friends, and have started the New Year off safely.

DECEMBER SHOW. It was lovely to see you all, and I particularly loved hearing Christmas songs being played in between the regular songs. It can be hard to get into the "Spirit" of the occasion but Christmas songs always seem to do the trick.

I appreciated all the comments that were made to us and to those people who thanked us for all our hard work throughout the year. I really do enjoy creating the meals for you all.

I would like to thank a few of our committee members who have helped us out last year. (Our Unsung heroes) Bernie is amazing and jumps in when we are short staffed, Bruce/Karol donates the lemons each month from their tree, Beth for assisting us gathering the orders for the Beyond Blindness tables, Fred for his wonderfully helpful selling capabilities in selling our left over foods and of course Keith and Helen for everything they do... (The list of things they do is endless) so If I can help them out a little by supplying food, then that's one less thing they need to organise and I've done my part to lighten their load. I would also like to thank my awesome little family. I can't do what I do without them. They are my little support team.

Left Over Foods. I tend to over cater, as I never know how many people will be attending. My theory is it's better to have too much food than not enough. Left over foods are cooled and packaged up and sold at a discounted price. Please come and see me after desserts are served to purchase your take away meals *subject to availability.

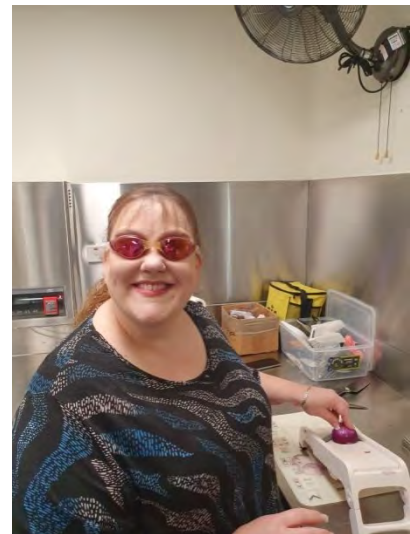

A little something that should amuse you..... I struggle with chopping onions. Always have! It doesn't matter what I do, I will always end up with tears streaming down my face and stinging eyes. Until recently, I have come up with a fool proof method of slicing the little devils.... Goggles! I have even bought a pair now specifically for chopping the onions.

Please remember that I supply the Beyond Blindness tables before I open the roller door at 12 Noon. I try to be on time but this is not always the case so your patience is appreciated.

I try to start serving desserts at 1pm until sold out. I do this at 1pm so I can clear away all the lunch foods first. I need the time to pack any left overs away and tidy up and then prepare or heat up the desserts ready for 1 o'clock.

See you at the next show.

On a sad note Christine Harrison, the wife of the late Glenn Harrison, (the founder of the Gawler Country Music Club and the Adelaide Club) passed away in her sleep on Wednesday 6th December. Christine was well known to all the S A clubs. In the late Ninety's Christine wrote a monthly article on all the clubs for the Capital News. This was back when there was a lot more clubs in SA. Rest in peace Christine. Our thoughts go to her family.

On the Sick List:::

Jim O'Riely has been in hospital after a bad reaction to the Shingles injection. Jim runs the sound at the Open Mic each month. Thanks Jim for all your help throughout the year.

Fred Hugo has also been in hospital with a series of blood clots. He had surgery on Wednesday the 13th of December to have them removed.

Robert Chapman has also been in hospital. He had a valve replaced. That's open heart surgery. Rob rang me on the Saturday prior to our club show and said he was back on the mend. We hope you all have a speedy recovery. Get well Soon.

The Playford Country Music Club would like to thank Munno Para Foodland for the excellent meat trays that we purchase for the meat tray raffles. They are excellent value for money and the last month's prizes were purchased with a gift voucher sent to us by them after we gave them feedback on how happy we were with our purchases.

* Have a Giggle ****

A man says to his friend, My wife's credit card got stolen last week.

The friend replies: That's a shame. Have you told the police?

The man says : No way, the thief is spending less than she did!

Laughing can make you live longer. Read up on our old age jokes and “getting old” jokes to live forever.

Getting old doesn’t have to be sad. Make fun of those grey hairs with these old people jokes and jokes for seniors.

Over dinner, I could sense something was bothering my mother, so I asked if anything was wrong. “Yes,” she admitted. “What’s all this I hear on the news about banning baking products?” I patted her hand reassuringly and said, “That’s vaping products.”

After my 91-year-old mother finished having her hair cut and shaped, the stylist announced, “There, now you look ten years younger.” My mother, un-impressed, replied, “Who wants to look 81 years old?”

When a soldier came to the clinic where I work for an MRI, he was put into the machine by an attractive, young technician. Sometime later, when the examination was over, he was helped out of the machine by a far older woman. The soldier remarked, “How long was I in there for?” Joanne Korman, Bedford, Nova Scotia

Seeing her friend Sally wearing a new locket, Meg asks if there is a memento of some sort inside. “Yes,” says Sally, “a lock of my husband’s hair.” “But Larry’s still alive.” “I know, but his hair is gone.”

Senior citizens have taken to texting with gusto. They even have their own vocabulary:

BFF: Best Friend Fainted

BYOT: Bring Your Own Teeth

CBM: Covered by Medicare

FWB: Friend with Beta-blockers

LMDO: Laughing My Dentures Out

GGPBL: Gotta Go, Pacemaker Battery Low!

Just as she was celebrating her 80th birthday, our friend received a jury-duty notice. She called the clerk's office to remind them that she was exempt because of her age.

"You need to come in and fill out the exemption forms," the clerk said.

"But I filled them out last year," she replied.

"You have to fill them out every year."

"Why? Do you think I'm getting younger?"

"Everything's starting to click for me!" said my father-in-law at dinner. "My knees, my elbows, my neck ... "

I knew that my husband's hearing had deteriorated after our friend—new to the city— asked where he could meet some singles. "Well," said my husband, "I see them in the Kmart parking lot diving for fries."

"Dear," I intervened. "Singles, not seagulls."
