On the sick list:

Fred Hugo update: Fred had been in hospital with a series of blood clots. He had surgery as they found he had a large stomach tumour. He also had no blood getting down to his lower leg and had to have it amputated. He was transferred to Modbury Hospital to continue with his therapy. He then returned home to recuperate and we were lucky enough to see him at our February show.

Robert Chapman update: Robert came to our January show and is still on the mend.

Get well soon guys.

On a sad note from across the ditch

Bill Armstrong passed away in December. He was in a nursing home for a while. Bill was a Kiwi and moved back to New Zealand a few years ago. Bill and Kathy were big supporter of the Gawler Country Music Club for many years. Bill and Kathy were members for many years and Bill was Father Christmas every year for a long time. He had a sleigh all painted up in Christmas colours he look the part in every way. He also ran a one off Country Music Show out near Mallala. Music In The Country, what a great show it was to. Bill and Kathy were great supported of Australian Country Music. Rest In peace Old Mate. Our thoughts go out to Kathy and her family.

Our band for January was One Night Stand

Our January Monte Carlo winners were Jacky and Jim Gartner

Our line dance corner

The hall was filled and the dance floor was busy

We had many happy prize winners this month

Presidents Report for January & February.

What a way to start off a new year. One Night Stand were brilliant with great music all day. Great numbers through the door. Our dance floor was packed most of the day. This group has certainly done some work behind the scenes. Well done guys we had a great day.

Moving onto our February show with Midnight Special. Always a fun day with Warren and the band. Numbers down a little but still good. I must thank Bev Jones and Noeline Masters for helping out during the day as we were a few committee members short. Kevin and Bernie were away on a holiday and Ian was at Lake Charlegrark Country Music Marathon as he does every year. Beth fell ill and had to go home. As it turned out she had a very bad migraine and it took her days to get over it.

Moving onto our March show, we will have Work N Overtime with guest artist Angela Easson. This will be an excellent show. Don't miss it. Until our next newsletter and club show.

Keep it country.

Have a Giggle

A customer walked into a bar and said "I'll have a pint of less, please".

The bartender replied "Less? What's that?".

The customer: "I don't know either, but my doctor told me to drink less".

Tommy wins American Grammy

Australia's Tommy Emmanuel has taken out his first American Grammy Award.

Tommy took home the Best Arrangement, Instrumental or A Capella for his cover of the Johnny Cash classic Folsom Prison Blues at the Awards staged Monday in Los Angeles.

It was third time lucky for the guitar maestro after featuring in the 1998 and 2006 finals for Best Country Instrumental Performance category for, respectively, Smokey Mountain Lullaby and Gameshow Rag/Cannonball Rag.

The awards, originally the Gramophone Awards (after the gramophone style trophy), are presented by the Recording Academy of the United States.

Eight-time Golden Guitar and ARIA award winner, Allan Caswell was awarded the prestigious honour as this year's inductee at tonight's Toyota 52nd Golden Guitar awards ceremony by Toyota Star Maker Coordinator and Managing Editor of Tamworth Country Music Capital News Cheryl Brown, and Americana artist Lachlan Bryan for his long-serving contribution to country music in Australia and New Zealand.

Allan migrated to Australia in 1966, where he attended South Sydney Boys High. He started performing professionally in 1971 and his songwriting career started in 1973 when signed to Albert Music. In 1979, he wrote On the Inside, which became the theme for the television series Prisoner and later a major international hit song. Its success triggered a succession of recordings by Patti Page, Cilla Black, The Irish Rovers, Max Bygraves, Acker Bilk, Slim Dusty, The Living End, Chad Morgan, Lynne Hamilton, James Blundell, Anne Kirkpatrick, Don Spencer, Graeme Connors, The Delltones, Doug Ashdown and Ricky May.

Allan won his first Golden Guitar for Best New Talent in 1980 and was inducted into the Country Music Hands of Fame in 1982. Over his 53-year career, Allan has won a total of eight Golden Guitars, 14 TSA awards, one ARIA, one APRA award and two gold singles for On the Inside.

Allan's music has taken him to every state in Australia and across the globe, including to LA, New York, Nashville, NZ, East Timor, Iraq and Afghanistan, and he has worked live with Garth Brooks, Don McLean, Gerry and the Pacemakers, Herman's Hermits, Pam Ayers, Billy Thorpe and The Little River Band, Tommy Emmanuel, Vince Gill, Kathy Mattea and Highway 101.

Allan is now established as a songwriter, performer, author, record producer, journalist and teacher and is arguably Australia's most recorded songwriter, with over 950 songs recorded and published.

The Roll of Renown was initiated by Radio 2TM in 1976, when Tex Morton, Father of Australian Country, was the first to be placed on the Roll. To date, 54 country music legends have joined the exclusive group with plaques recognizing each inductee placed on boulders in front of the Tamworth Regional Entertainment and Conference Centre (TRECC).

Laughing can make you live longer. Read up on our old age jokes and “getting old” jokes to live forever.

Getting old doesn't have to be sad. Make fun of those grey hairs with these old people jokes and jokes for seniors.

<https://www.rd.com/jokes/old-age/>

Also other funny stories. On that site to give you a smile

I was feeling pretty creaky after hearing the TV reporter say, "To contact me, go to my Facebook page, follow me on Twitter, or try me the old-fashioned way - e-mail."

My grandfather was sipping a beer when he confessed to me he'd drunk more than usual the day before. "What's more than usual?" I asked.

"A case."

"You can drink a case in a day?!"

"Well," he grumbled defensively, "it doesn't take all day."

The biggest loser at my weight-loss club was an elderly woman. "How'd you do it?" we asked. "Easy," she said. "Every night I take my teeth out at six o'clock."

John is out with his friends and stops by his grandmother's house for a visit. There's a bowl of peanuts on the coffee table, and John and his friends start snacking on them. When they're ready to leave, his friends say, "Nice to meet you, ma'am, and thank you for the peanuts." Grandma says, "You're welcome. Ever since I lost my dentures, all I can do is suck the chocolate off of them."

Her class assignment was to interview an "old person" about his life, so my niece asked me, "What was the biggest historical event that happened during your childhood?"

"I'd have to say the moonwalk," I replied.

She looked disappointed. "That dance was so important to you?"

One of my fourth graders asked my teacher's assistant, "How old are you, Mrs. Glass?"

"You should never ask an adult's age," I broke in.

"That's okay," Harriett said smiling. "I'm fifty."

"Wow, you don't look that old," the boy said. I was breathing a sigh of relief when another child chimed in, "Parts of her do."

I was having lunch with my daughter Rachel, who's three, at our local mall and was feeling particularly macho for a 46-year-old. All morning, women had been smiling at me and giving me the eye.

Getting up to leave the table, I ran my fingers through my hair—and discovered two yellow-ducky barrettes that had been lovingly placed there hours before.

The insurance agency I work for draws business from a retirement community. Once, when applying for auto insurance for a client, I asked him how many miles he drives in a year. He said he didn't know.

"Well, do you drive 10,000 miles a year?" I asked, "or 5,000?"

He said the numbers sounded high. "What month is this?" he asked. I told him it was July.

"Maybe this will help," he said. "I filled the car with gas in February."
