President's Report for March and April

Hello members and friends. Well our March show was a great day with Workin' Overtime, with excellent music all day. We had an extra musician, Andrew Clermont, joining the band playing the fiddle and ukulele. Wow, that hit the spot. It gave the band a lift (not that they needed the lift) and it was great. Our guest artist was Angela Eason. Angela was always a regular some years ago when she lived in Adelaide. She moved to Queensland seven years ago to further her career in entertainment. That has worked out wonderfully and she was excellent. If Angela has the opportunity to come back to South Australia she knows to give me a call.

Moving on to our April show, Eddie and Friends are always great to have. They play a lot of the older style music mixed in with some more modern stuff.

Next month is our sixth birthday. Boy that time has gone quickly.

Don't forget that memberships are due next month. Please renew as the club relies on membership to make it viable. So until our May show..

Keep it country.

FIONA'S TUCKERBOX

MARCH SHOW The March show landed nicely on St Patricks Day this year, so when I suggested my kitchen crew wear something green to match my "Green Food" menu, Victoria was just as excited as I was. Matthew reluctantly wore his green tie too, which was great. Michael and Anthony were relieved to have had other plans. They went off to attend the Adelaide Motor Sport Festival. My attempt at green food seemed to be accepted well with the green veggies and especially the Choc mint cheesecakes which sold out in record time. Here is a quick version of my recipe that I concocted.

2 packets of Oreo Biscuits crushed, 100gm Melted Margarine. Combine both and add to the base of a greased pie dish and push down with finger tips to flatten. (I used individual dessert bowls)

Combine 300mls thickened cream, 1 tin condensed milk, 500gm cream cheese, peppermint essence, green food colouring and 200gm dark chocolate bits. I used a hand mixer to combine. Pour over the prepared base. Refrigerate for at least 3 hours. I allowed it to set over night. Before serving add a spoonful of crushed peppermint aero bar or any mint chocolate. Enjoy ☺

45kg of delicious pears

APRIL SHOW I always try to incorporate something ANZAC Day related into the April Menu. My family have so much respect for this day and so I made some ANZAC biscuits and a Pear crumble with an ANZAC biscuit/crumble topping. This dessert was a huge hit; I appreciated all the wonderful comments made. Thank you.

We get all our pears donated to us from committee members Bruce & Karol's backyard tree. This year we had a whopping 45kg to peel, cut and prepare/freeze, and in true Aussie spirit Victoria and I tackled this task with the help of a couple of bottles of wine. It took a few hours to finish this task but it's a great bonding experience between Mumma Bear and Anthony's girlfriend. She always offers to help..... Drink wine with me!

I am noticing that majority of the plates; bowls and cutlery are being returned to the kitchen when they're finished with. Thank you so much for helping with this. We really do appreciate it as it saves us a lot of time. Catering for such large numbers is quite time consuming but I love doing it, and your help is being noticed.

Lastly, a quick reminder that desserts are served from 1pm until sold out. So don't miss out! There will be another warm Pear dessert next month. Hahaha

See you at the next show. Fiona ☺

Australian country music

Slim Dusty, who was the best-selling domestic country artist

Australian country music is a part of the music of Australia. There is a broad range of styles, from bluegrass, to yodeling to folk to the more popular. The genre has been influenced by Celtic and English folk music, the Australian bush ballad tradition, as well as by popular American country music.^[1] Themes include: outback life, the lives of stockmen, truckers and outlaws, songs of romance and of political protest; and songs about the "beauty and the terror" of the Australian bush.

Early pioneers of the genre included Tex Morton, Smoky Dawson (touted as Australia's first singing cowboy), Buddy Williams, Slim Dusty and Johnny Ashcroft, Reg Lindsay and Jean Stafford (Early Hadley Recordings) who are all members of the Australian Roll of Renown.

Australia has a long tradition of country music, which has developed a style quite distinct from its US counterpart, influenced by English, Irish and Scottish folk ballads and by the traditions of Australian bush balladeers like Henry Lawson and Banjo Paterson. Country instruments, including the guitar, banjo, fiddle and harmonica create the distinctive sound of country music in Australia and accompany songs with strong storyline and memorable chorus and lyrics.^[1]

The style of Australian country music evolved under the influence of rock and roll forms. While some subject matter may be constant, musical styles differ between traditional and contemporary bush ballads. Exemplars of the traditional bush ballad style include Slim Dusty's "When the Rain Tumbles Down in July" or "Leave Him in the Long Yard" which have strong narrative in verses plus choruses set to a pick n' strum beat. Contemporary bush ballads may employ finger picking and strumming rock styles as in Lee Kernaghan's later version of "Leave Him in the Long Yard", or in Keith Urban reworking of the Slim Dusty/Joy McKean classic "Lights on the Hill".^[2]
