

Sense of Humour Essential

Four old retired guys are walking down a street in Maroochydore.

They turned a corner and see a sign that says, 'Old Timer's Bar - all drinks 10 cents!

They look at each other, and then go in, thinking this is too good to be true.

The old bartender says in a voice that carries across the room, 'Come on in and let me pour one for you! What'll it be, Gentlemen?'

There seemed to be a fully-stocked bar, so each of the men ask for a martini.. In short order, the bartender serves up four iced Martinis... shaken, not stirred, and says, 'That'll be 10 cents each, please.'

The four men stare at the bartender for a moment. Then look at each other...they can't believe their good luck. They pay the 40 cents, finish their Martinis, and order another round.

Again, four excellent Martinis are produced with the bartender again saying, 'That's 40 cents, please..' They pay the 40 cents, but their curiosity is more than they can stand. They have each had two Martinis and so far they've spent less than a dollar.

Finally one of the men says, 'How can you afford to serve Martinis as good as these for a 10 cents each?'

'I'm a retired tailor from Sydney,' the bartender said, 'and I always wanted to own a bar. Last year I hit the Lottery for $25 million and decided to open this place. Every drink costs ten cents - wine, liquor, beer, it's all the same.'

Wow!!!! That's quite a story,' says one of the men.

The four of them sipped at their Martinis and couldn't help but notice seven other people at the end of the bar who didn't have drinks in front of them, and hadn't ordered anything the whole time they were there. One man gestures at the seven at the end of the bar without drinks and asks the bartender, 'What's with them?'

The bartender says, 'Oh, they're all old retired Victorian farts from the caravan park waiting for happy hour when drinks are half price.'

We luv ya all in Victoria!

Thank you for the great honour bestowed on me in the January edition of Gawler Country Music Club Inc newsletter; however I believe those we should be writing about are the ones who bring us joy and good entertainment each month.

Our President, Keith Warren, wife Helen and Executive and Committee Members devote so much of their time and energy into making each show the success it is; we members are fortunate to have such a dedicated group in charge.

These special Sunday shows just don't 'Happen' they are the result of endless time, research and dedication.

Encouragement given to novice entertainers through the Gawler Country Music Workshop is to be commended; and the balancing of Bank Book has miraculously kept the entrance fee at the same level we paid for shows 30 year ago – Unbelievable!

Les Parris is edging closer to a decade of keeping us informed of Club activities and interesting trivia each month; no handicap deters this talented editor of our Newsletter.

Thanks to each and every person involved in the enjoyment I get on the 3rd Sunday of each month.

I wish everyone a very Happy New Year, may Gawler Country Music Club Grow and prosper.

Best wishes

Flo Thompson
