Hi Folks

Have you ever gone shopping and observed the behaviour of parents and their children?

Last weekend while doing our weekly shopping Tina and I watched as a woman at the local Woolworth's supermarket shopped with her three-year-old daughter.

As they approached the sweet section the little girl asked for some liquorice sticks and her mother told her, 'No'.

The little girl instantly began to whine and fuss.

The mother said softly, 'Now Chelsea, our shopping is going well, Don't be upset.....we'll soon be out of here.'

Presently, they came to the aisle where the ice cream was on offer and the little girl began to ask for an ice lolly.

When told she couldn't have one she began to cry. The mother said gently, 'There, there, Chelsea, don't cry. Only two more aisles to go and then we'll be at the check out'.

When they got to the conveyer belt the little girl immediately began to demand sweets next to the checkout.

Finally she threw a tantrum when her mother would not let her have any sweets.

The mother calmed her saying, 'Chelsea, we'll be through this queue in two minutes and then we can go home and have a glass of squash and a nap.'

Tina and I followed them out to the car park and stopped the woman to compliment her on her child management.

'I couldn't help admiring how patient you were with little Chelsea,' Tina said.

The mother turned and replied, 'Oh, no, I'm Chelsea. My little girl's name is Dorothy.'

President's Report

April 2008

G'Day Members & Friends,

Well what a great day we had with a 200 plus crowd wanting a good time. Well they were not disappointed; Bernie & the Bandits certainly played all the right music. The dance floor was full all the time.

Graeme Hugo came onto the stage and played many country favourites. This is a show we will certainly look at organising again.

I must also thank all the committee for their efforts in getting everyone seated. Also a big thank you to all the members who renewed their memberships.

Well onto next months show. Reg Poole and Owen Blundell.

They are a fantastic entertaining duo, don't miss them. Their show is a real beauty especially for Country fans.

Come and join us for another great show. Until then ...
